

Howwood Community Council

December 2007 Newsletter

Christmas Lights & Carols
Friday 7th December 7.30pm
“Triangle”

Station Road / Main Street

Our lights will be turned on at the time above. Johnstone Silver Band will be there to play for carol singing. All Welcome, and the Kirk is providing mince pies in the church hall afterwards.

Energy Saving: Tuesday 15th
January 2008 at 8pm

The energy efficiency advice centre, is coming to speak to residents in Howwood village hall, about the service they offer, and how individuals and community groups can install renewable technologies in their homes and other buildings.

Scottish Evening:

Saturday 9th February 2008 at 6.00pm

as before, any Howwood resident 60 years of age or older can attend; there will be food, drink, and entertainment. This time from the Largs & District Fiddle Orchestra, and the Royal Scottish Country Dance Association (Ayr Branch): all for 75p tickets from Linda in the Post Office from mid January.